

ARIZONA STATE UNIVERSITY

27 September 2007

To Whom It May Concern:

Yun-Ju Hsiao has asked that I write a letter of recommendation regarding her application for graduate study at your University. I am happy to do so.

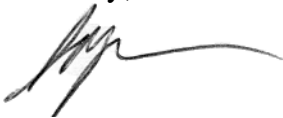

Ms. Hsiao has been a student in two of my classes and I serve on her Master's Thesis Committee. I feel I can accurately speak to her potential as a candidate for an advanced degree. She was a motivated student in all respects. The quality of her work was excellent and given her language background, her written and verbal skills were at or above the norm of the students in my classes.

In addition to her performance in class, she is also carrying out an excellent study for her thesis. Her work here was also above what we expect and receive from most students.

In interacting with Ms. Hsiao, I have also come to know that she is a very well-rounded individual with varied interests and experiences.

Obviously, then, I recommend her very highly. In fact, I wish she were interested in staying in Arizona, as we would enjoy retaining someone of her caliber and motivation.

Sincerely,
